Dear Ms. Adams,
Yes, we still believe that the committee's work is tracking towards a completion of the final report by the March due date. I don't anticipate that the report will be completed early, but we are not currently planning to ask for additional time.

At this point, the committee has not taken a formal vote on the specific allegations, so we don't know what their final conclusions will be. However, I believe that, in an effort to garner resources for Purdue's own internal decision-making, President Cordova and Provost Lechtenberg are interested in learning, in general, about the types of sanctions that ONR is aware of or has encouraged in the past for misconduct in the reporting (as distinct from the conduct) of research.

Dr. Rutledge is continuing to work, on a part-time basis, on some special projects and I see him regularly. I will share with him your regards.

Please let me know, when possible, which of the two dates/times that I suggested would be most convenient for you and your staff.

Thanks for your continuing assistance.

Sincerely,
Peter Dunn

Dear Dr. Dunn,

I'll try to set it up...can you tell me what will be discussed? I would like to have our representatives present as well for back up.

Are you able to tell me if the report is tracking regarding the March due date? Will you need additional time?

I sincerely appreciate all the effort and attention you have given this matter. Please give Dr. Rutledge my warmest regards.

Thank you,

Holly Adams

Dear Ms. Adams,

Purdue's President, France Cordova, and Interim Provost, Victor Lechtenberg, have asked if you would be willing to speak with them by phone prior to our Investigation Committee's completion of its work.
