> At extreme short notice, Yiban got these 8 signed letters together for me > even from students who were out of town. Another two may be coming tomorrow > from students who simply could not make it. Several others also could be > reached if we had a week or so. However, these 8 to 10 should be more than > sufficient to tell the story.
> Importantly, NO ONE currently working in my lab. on research has been left > out. All willingly and promptly took the opportunity to respond. I truly > feel a surge of humility at their responses.
